

Contact Details:

- ✓ Web: - www.nepaltouroperators.com
- ✓ Email: - nepaltouragency@gmail.com
- ✓ Cell No: - +9779871016865 (whatsapp, viber, wechat )

Chitwan National park Jungle Safari Tour is one of the most popular jungle activities in Nepal. UNESCO declared the Chitwan National Park a World Heritage Site in 1979, which covers 932 square kilometers. Large numbers of travelers visit Chitwan National Park each year for jungle safari. Chitwan National Park is listed in the lowlands of central Terai and offers some of Asia's best nature reserves.

Highlights of the Chitwan Jungle Safari tour

- v Explore Chitwan National Park, one of the UNESCO World Heritage sites in Nepal
- v Visit the elephant breeding center and watch the elephants bathing
- v Watch the Tharu culture dance and learn about the culture spends in the villages
- v Enjoy an elephant ride and jeep safari in Chitwan National Park
- v Discover endangered species like the royal Bengal tiger and the unicorn rhino
- v Canoeing along the Rapti River

2 nights 3 days Jungle Safari tour in Chitwan

2 nights, 3 day Chitwan Jungle Safari tour is an exciting journey into the desert of the Terai region. Chitwan national park tour itinerary designed for anyone who wants to know birds and other animal species' diversity.

Chitwan National Park, The first national park of Nepal is a nature reserve where some of the most exotic and rare animal species in Nepal live. The Chitwan National Park is home to 68 species of mammals, 543 species of birds, and abundant beautiful vegetation and is a treasure not only for Nepal but also for the whole world.

Chitwan National Park is just a 6-7 hour drive from the capital Kathmandu, or Pokhara and Lumbini. It is in a place commonly known as Sauraha. You can see some endangered species in the National Park, such as the Royal Bengal tiger, the elephant, and the unicorn rhino.

2 nights 3 days jungle safari tour in Chitwan is very popular with bird watchers. The various birds whose sweet melodies will delight you include the endangered Florican Bengal, the Gray-crowned Prinia, the swamp francolin, grass warblers, and narrow-beaded quacks, herons, cane fritters, storks and kingfishers. The park is a beautiful breeding ground for two-thirds of the world's endangered Nepalese species.

You can also experience the incredible culture of the Tharu community in Chitwan. It includes the Tharu cultural stick dance that you will experience

You will also participate in a kayak on the Rapti River, which is an unforgettable experience paddling among the crocodiles sunbathing on the river bank. You can see crocodiles basking motionless in the sun, often with their mouths open. It makes it a beautiful fotografischer time

The Chitwan tour's significant part is the jungle safari, in which you can get close to the habitats of numerous wild animals in their natural surroundings.

You will go for jungle safari either on the back of an elephant or in a jeep. If you ride on the back of an elephant, you have an excellent viewpoint to see other animals if you want to enjoy the jungle tour in a jeep's safety and comfort.

Details Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival at the Chitwan National Park.

There are two ways to get to Chitwan. You can arrive on a tourist bus that takes between 6 and 7 hours, or on a flight that takes 20 minutes and lands at Bharatpur airport. After arriving in Chitwan, drive to the hotel where you will be staying. You can cool off and rest for a while and have a tour briefing. In the afternoon, you will have your lunch. Around 3:30 p.m., drive to the Tharu Cultural Museum and take a tour of the Tharu village. You know their culture, traditions, and lifestyles, which may even surprise you in some way. Around 6:30 p.m., you see a Tharu culture dance that you learned from your predecessors. You will have dinner at 8:30 p.m., and you will spend the night at your hotel.

Day 2: full-day jungle safari tour in Chitwan National Park

After breakfast at 7:00 a.m., go canoeing. You will canoe down the Rapti River and observe various birds and aquatic animals. You can see crocodiles, gharials, and other mammals in their natural habitat. Around 9:30 a.m., visit the elephant breeding center and see baby elephants and mothers. It will be quite an experience to show your mutual affection. You return to your hotel for lunch and go on safari to the jungle. You can use a jeep or ride an elephant to see animals like rhino, deer, monkey, wild boar, bison, sloth, and leopard. You can also get a chance to see a Royal Bengal Tiger. If you're lucky. You can also see the elephants bathing happily. In the evening, you can see the stunning sunset as you walk along the Rapti River banks. You return to your hotel for dinner and sleep.

Day 3: Drive to your next destination.

After breakfast, we will take you to Bus Park or the airport for the next destination.

The costs include:

- v Two breakfasts, two lunches, two dinners
- v Three-star accommodation in Chitwan for two Nights
- v Land All ground transportation on a private vehicle.
- v A qualified and licensed English speaking Nature guide

v All entrances fees to the national park, monuments, and museum.

Cost without:

v Personal shopping and advice

v Laundry service

v Any drinks

v Telephone call

Food and Accommodation

All accommodations for this tour are included in the double sharing room and adding in the travel costs. We select the hotel according to the standard of hygiene, service, food, location, etc. You will spend a three-star luxury hotel with full board (room, breakfast, lunch, and dinner).

Endangered species

Many animals have been classified as endangered species and have beautifully preserved in Chitwan National Park. These animals are the leopard, tiger, rhino, alligators, and elephants.

Bird watching

If you love nature, surely you will love the birds singing and the sight of their beautiful bodies, and perhaps there is no better place for this than the Chitwan National Park. In this Chitwan Jungle Safari Tour, you can observe many of the 543 species of birds.

Rafting on the Rapti River

As you canoe down the Rapt River, you will captivate by the views of Marsha Mugger and Gharial Crocodiles. They often sunbathe on the river bank. You can also see rare species of birds, reptiles, and other animals in the wetland. The canoe trip offers you an unprecedented view of these animals in their nearby natural habitat.

You can also explore the first national park in Nepal in all its natural beauty on an elephant or a jeep. You will be amazed by the exotic types of flora and fauna. Also, please take a look at the relaxed elephants bathing in their natural habitat.