Best time

You can do mountain flight almost any time of the year, as long as the weather is beautiful. However, the flight is less suitable in the monsoon season because the weather is irregular and you can't see a clear view of the mountain from the plane. Winter is the best time of year to fly because it has a crystal clear view of the landscape and is incredibly beautiful due to the mountains' snowfall.

Clothes in flight

Although the temperature in Kathmandu is average, it is colder in the mountainous region. So please prepare for the low temperature. It is best to put warm jackets and pants in your bag.

Food and snacks

You can carry light snacks such as nuts, dried fruits, sweets, etc., during your flight. It is best to enjoy the view of something to eat. However, dense food is not allowed on the plane.
